ABOUT

Elizabeth (Lizzy) joined the firm in 2016 and her strong legal background brings a wealth of knowledge to the firm. Lizzy's past experience enables her to customize each client situation to suit individual needs. Lizzy is strongly committed to providing personalized service to her clients with a focus on guiding them to reach their individual goals. Lizzy pursued an active career in civil and criminal litigation, including estates and trust litigation in both PA and NJ, and in civic planning. After working in large trust companies in Delaware in remediation, Lizzy returned to Philadelphia to practice in a boutique firm, concentrating on estate and trust planning and litigation of estate issues. Raised in Philadelphia, from a family with deep roots in the area, Lizzy is thoroughly enjoying the Hudson Valley and has become actively involved in her new community. Lizzy is a proud Rotarian and is slated to be President in 2020 in addition to numerous other roles within the club. Lizzy is also a Paul Harris Fellow. Lizzy is a member of the Wildenstein Board of Directors, sits on the Winnakee Land Trust development committee and assists with the Winnakee gala as well as the Northern Dutchess Hospital Foundation Gala. Lizzy is strongly committed to philanthropy and has appeared in the following local publications for her charitable work- The Hudson Valley News, Living Kingston Magazine (cover) and The Rural Intelligencer. The ties that Lizzy has built in the Hudson Valley help her to have strong connections to the area so she understands the unique needs of the greater community in which she lives and works. Lizzy has also been interviewed for financial tips on Nbcnews.com. Lizzy enjoys spending time with her wonderful husband Paul and step-daughter Lucy.
