Position Title:	Relationship Developer
Department:	Relationship Development
FLSA Class:	Exempt-Administrative
Job Type:	Full Time
Standard Week:	40+ Hours
Reports To:	Director of Relationship Development

Job Description: This is an essential position in our firm, and will play a significant role in the company's strategic plans to grow and expand the business.

This position is designed to be flexible with regards to your work location. We have an on-site work station available for the days you need to be in the office. There also may be days where you have the option to work remotely from your home office. You will work in collaboration with the Director of Relationship Development to determine where you should work on any given day.

The Relationship Developer will focus on generating leads using a relationship-based approach that will involve developing strategies to identify, attract, and acquire groups and/or individual prospective clients. Developing meaningful relationships with referral sources and prospective clients will include marketing the firm's competitive position as a leader in the industry, promoting the value proposition provided by the firm's services and capabilities, and emphasizing the firm's strong commitment to Ethics and Values.

The Relationship Developer will be responsible for directly establishing their own personal networks and developing meaningful relationships with referral sources and prospective clients. In addition, the firm will refer prospects identified as a result of the firm's marketing initiatives as well as distributing prospect lists generated from the firm's CRM. The Relationship Developer will be responsible for contacting prospects that have been referred by the firm to develop meaningful relationships.

Working in partnership with the Director of Relationship Development and the Financial Advisors, the Relationship Developer will develop relationship management initiatives to convert prospective clients into new business for the firm.
