ABOUT

As an avid runner and former collegiate athlete, Lyndsey has the competitive drive to help clients reach their financial goals. She understands the importance of running your finances while managing the marathon. After graduating from Mansfield University with a Bachelors Degree in Accounting, Lyndsey went on to earn her Master's in Business Administration (MBA) from Shippensburg University. She previously worked alongside a brokerage firm serving a wide array of clients in tax preparation and investment planning.

While pursuing her MBA, Lyndsey flourished in a Human Resources role with Shippensburg, expanding her knowledge of employee benefits. She brings a great work ethic and achieving mindset to the JGUA team, in addition to making sure every clients best interests and needs are put first!
