Regional Manager, Relationship Development

ABOUT

Lisa Fusco is a Regional Manager, Relationship Development with John G. Ullman & Associates, serving out of the Big Flats office since October 2024.

Lisa holds a dual Bachelor of Arts Degree in Biology and Biochemistry from Keuka College. She worked as a Project Manager for Corning, Inc. for six years before becoming a stay-at-home mom to her four children - two biological daughters and an adopted daughter and son from Guatemala. During that time, Lisa found her passion. She envisions a vibrant community where our neighbors are equipped with the skills and knowledge they need to achieve their personal goals. Her passion is evident through her achievements at the Steuben County Habitat for Humanity and Hardinge, Inc. where she focused on business, community and people development initiatives.

In her spare time, Lisa serves as Chair of the Corning Area Chamber of Commerce and is involved in various other community organizations. In addition to being a mom to four kids and two dogs, Lisa leads international mission trips to Ecuador and serves as Missions Team Leader at her church. Her hobbies include traveling, reading, cooking and cheering on the Buffalo Bills.
