

Logan Dibble

Associate Advisor

ABOUT

Logan Dibble is an Associate Advisor who joined John G. Ullman & Associates in September 2025.

He was born and raised in northern Pennsylvania, and is eager to serve clients. In understanding the fundamental nature of our clients, Logan knows that each individual that walks into the firm has unique situations and experiences, and therefore will have unique needs. Financial Planning is a serious matter, and the firm's foundational philosophy of providing family-oriented, comprehensive services are coaligned with Logan's personal belief that strong financial positioning leads to a fulfilling life.

After graduating with a Bachelors in Business Administration from Slippery Rock University, Logan knew that his inherent drive to help individuals and families would lead to rewarding experiences; financial advising was the perfect fit. He always looks forward to integrating his passions into his career and providing his knowledge and services to any client in need.
